

focus

focusphotography.ca

Chinese Door Games Ideas

Asking for $9999

It is always a good sign for the numbers 8 and 9 to be requested on the wedding day. Groomsmen, have your red pockets ready as this is the first step of the door games!

Seaweed Passing

Have the groomsmen pass pieces of thin seaweeds using their mouths! Always a crowd favorite as it usually creates perfect moments where one of the groomsmen fails to have the seaweed hold on as they pass it to their partner.

Follow and Dance!

Put on a dance music video and have them dance away in lip sync land

Finding the key inside the ice

Have a key or item hidden inside a block of ice, they should be trying to break it or melt it with the most creative way.

Sing a song using certain words

Nothing says more than sincere than a song dedication, make it tougher for him by making him use words such as "love" or even your name!

Popping some balloons

Wrap balloons around the groom's body parts and have the groomsmen pop it using various body parts

Push up mania

Time to do some push ups, now we can do this in multiple ways. Have one groomsmen hold a seaweed in his mouth, and the groom do a push up to pick it up. Too close? It's always an option to have plates of fruits or whip creamed plates for serving, no one stops doing push ups until the plates are clean.

Yoga Pose

Have photos of certain difficult poses, everyone must be able to hold the same pose for 5 seconds atleast.

Secret Recipe

Time for them to choose their recipe! sweet, sour, bitter, spicy, the recipe is for you to choose!

Wax it off

Wax it off. Wax it off. Wax it off. Time to make them feel your pain!

Declaration of Love

The groom must declare his love and why he loves you! Either have strangers sign it as witness, or even just listing reasons that he loves you as the last part of his test!